CUC Remuneration Code

Consultation Submission Form

Determining the remuneration of senior post holders in higher education is the responsibility of governing bodies and their remuneration committees.

Most members of these bodies are unpaid, independent volunteers, with a wide experience of other walks of life and a sincere commitment to the long-term sustainability of their institution.

They are making difficult judgments with integrity, to the best of their ability; they serve out of a desire to perform public service.

We believe that most of their decisions result in institutional leaders being given appropriate remuneration for what is a complex, demanding and ever more challenging role.

At the same time, the CUC has recognized that we can do more to explain the decisions we have made and ensure that the appropriate governance arrangements are in place – with that in mind we have produced this draft guidance on remuneration for senior post holders.

We are keen to ensure that this guidance is owned by the sector and helps us to strike the right balance between demonstrating that we use the resources at our disposal wisely whilst at the same time ensuring that we can recruit and retain the very best staff – to continue to serve the interests of our students and our communities.

We have therefore decided to consult as widely as possible on this draft. I urge all members of the CUC and anyone else with an interest in the reputation of the UK HE sector to comment on the draft.
